3 Resolution declaring September 22, 2017, as Comfort Women Day in the City and 4 County of San Francisco.
5

6 WHEREAS, The term "comfort women" euphemistically refers to hundreds of 7 thousands of women and young girls who were forced into sexual slavery by the Imperial 8 Japanese Army during its colonial and wartime occupation of Asia and the Pacific Islands 9 from the 1930s through the duration of World War II; and

10 WHEREAS, This system of sexual servitude was the largest organized system in the 11 twentieth century; and

12 WHEREAS, Most of these women died but those who survived courageously broke 13 their silence, therefore aiding the movement against sexual violence during war; and

14 WHEREAS, The International Community has declared sexual violence as a strategy 15 of war a crime against humanity; and

16 WHEREAS, This system of sexual slavery helped pave the way for systems of sex 17 trafficking; and

18 WHEREAS, Sex trafficking and sexual slavery during wartime is still going on; and

19 WHEREAS, The San Francisco Board of Supervisors passed Resolution 342-15 calling 20 for the building of a memorial to the comfort women in San Francisco and to educate its 21 students about the history, past and present; and

22 WHEREAS, The Comfort Women Justice Coalition, a broad coalition of immigrant 23 communities women's organizations, and 11 human rights groups organized to build the 24 memorial for "comfort women;" and
